

Call for applications: Internship with China Macro Group (full-time / paid)

China Macro Group (CMG) invites internship applications for Q2 2022 / as of April 2022 for paid full- or part-time internships for a duration of 3-4 months. This internship program targets Bachelor and Master graduates, PhD candidates or Postdocs as well as young professionals interested to explore a move into the field of strategic China analysis and consulting.

About CMG: CMG provides original, fact-based and calibrated China policy and market analysis to advise on China strategies, cooperation concepts and negotiations for the European private sector, governments and investors; in its policy analysis, it puts a particular focus on China's economic, financial, foreign, trade, S&T and social policies – www.chinamacro.ch or www.chinamacro.eu.

Your profile

- Academic background in economics, political economy, finance, political science, public policy, law, technology management or international relations either in China or with focus on China
- Research and analysis experience on contemporary China topics
- Excellent Chinese language skills, esp. reading (minimum of HSK5 in 2010-2021 HSK scheme)
- Professional conduct of verbal and written English
- Proactive personality, rapid learner, analytical and fact-based working approach, curious and inquisitive mind, team-player, output orientation, high diligence for high-quality products, effective communicator
- Location: Beijing or Zurich, or any other location (for remote internship)
- Prior living/working experience in China a plus

What we offer

- An inspiring, collegial, dynamic and enabling working environment
- Interesting learning opportunities at the pulse of diverse practitioners' needs for China analysis
- Work on highly relevant China analysis
- Onboarding trainings in general research and consulting methodologies

Application documents

- Motivation letter (max. 1 page), highlighting your relevant expertise and expectations for CMG
- CV

Application process

- If you would like to apply for an internship, send your motivation letter and CV to career@chinamacro.ch in one consolidated PDF. Please indicate your dates of availability as well as your preferred location. Shortlisted candidates will be invited for an assessment process involving case-studies and slide writing as well as a Chinese language test for non-native speakers.
- CMG strives for a diverse team to optimally leverage our aspired cross-cultural vantage point for calibrated China-analysis. Despite the current office locations, non-Swiss and non-Chinese citizens are equally welcome to apply. Accepted candidates will be responsible for arranging their own visa if one is required. CMG supports this process with letters of invitation, contracts or other necessary documentation.

